

THE APPRENTICE APPROACH

ROUNDTABLE SCHEDULE

8 - 8:30am	Check-in/Registration
8:30am	Welcome and Introductions
9:00am	The State of Discipleship with intro by David Kinnaman
	The Great Commission Changing the World One Person at a Time: with intro by Tom Yeakley
	Break
	What is Discipleship Our Framework
12:30pm	Working Lunch at Roundtables
	The Pursuit The Process
	Break
	The Practices with video example from Mark Heffentrager
	Generations with video intro by Jerry White
	Reflect & Apply
4:00pm	Wrap Up and Engage!

Jack McQueeneey is wholehearted about helping people grow, develop, and deepen their walk with the Lord. He believes that as we grow in our love for Christ, we will serve, love, and trust God for the BIG things He calls us to. Jack has been on staff with The Navigators since 1982, first as an Assistant to Lorne Sanny, the President of the Navigators, then married Shaunda and served with Collegiate Ministry from 1984-1989 then to Eagle Lake in 1989. From 2001-2019, Jack provided leadership as the Executive Director of the Glen Eyrie Group, the camp and conference ministry of The Navigators. During that time he launched The Apprentice Approach. Jack and Shaunda have been married since 1984 and have four adult children and six grandchildren. They love spending time with family, all kinds of outdoor sports and of course, cheering on the Green Bay Packers!

David Kinnaman is the author of the bestselling books Good Faith, You Lost Me and unChristian. He is CEO of Barna Group, a leading research and communications company that works with churches, nonprofits, and businesses ranging from film studios to financial services. Since 1995, David has directed interviews with nearly two million individuals and overseen hundreds of U.S. and global research studies. He lives in California with their three children.

Tom Yeakley serves with The Navigators as a staff equipper for next generation leadership couples. He is passionate about “knowing Christ and making Him known” and helping others do the same. Tom and Dana have been on staff since 1978. They were involved in collegiate couple’s ministry, church discipleship ministries, and served in collegiate and community ministries in Indonesia from 1984-1994. After returning to the U.S., Tom served with the U.S. Collegiate and Campus Ministries, U.S. Leader Development team. Tom most recently led as the U.S. Field Director for the Nations, providing leadership for all U.S. cross-cultural ministries while serving as a member of The Navigators’ U.S. National Leadership Team. Tom and Dana have been married since 1973 and have three married children, Michael (deceased), Amy, and Stephen, and eight grandchildren. They have both authored numerous books on discipleship, including Praying Over God’s Promises and The Gentle Art of Discipling Women.

Mark Heffentrager has been on staff with the Navigators since 1998. He is the Director of Eagle Lake Camps where he has served for more than 25 years! He also serves on the Navigators’ National Leadership Team, providing oversight and direction to the organization. Mark is deeply committed to developing young leaders, encouraging them to know Christ and follow Him in every season of their lives. Mark and Jen have three kids ages 14, 11 and 8 which means they are unpaid Uber drivers and literally have no free time.

Shane Klackner is the Director of Programs for Eagle Lake Camps and has been on staff since 2015. In this role, he oversees the programming for Eagle Lake Overnight Camps, Day Camps, and On Location Camps, serving over 8,000 kids each year. Shane is passionate about investing in the lives of others, especially the coming generations. Rooted in the Word and in the love of Christ, Shane loves to intentionally build community and call others into a deeper walk of faith in Jesus.

Shane and Megan added their first child to their family in 2022 and enjoy hiking together with their dog in the mountains of Colorado. When it’s not summer, you can find Shane catching up on the latest Minnesota Vikings stats and cheering the loudest.

Dr. Jerry White, Major General USAF (Ret), is the President Emeritus and Board Chair Emeritus of The Navigators. Jerry served as the International President from 1986-2005. Jerry is a nationally competitive handball player (currently holding the world title), a licensed commercial pilot, and holds a degree in electrical engineering and a master’s and Ph.D. in Astronautics. He was a Mission controller at Cape Canaveral and in addition to co-authoring a nationally recognized textbook on astrodynamics, Jerry and his wife, Mary, have co-authored numerous books on topics such as work, ethics, relationships and parenting. Jerry and Mary have four children, 11 grandchildren, and live in Colorado Springs.